CAUSE WHY CIVIL PENALTIES AND COSTS SHOULD NOT BE IMPOSED

On the 11th day of August 2006, the Enforcement Section of the Missouri Securities Division (the “Division”), through Mary S. Hosmer, Assistant Commissioner, submitted a petition requesting a cease and desist order and other administrative relief. After reviewing the petition, the Commissioner issues the following findings of fact, conclusions of law and order:

I. JURISDICTIONAL STATEMENT

Respondent Dennis Edwards (“Edwards”) offered and sold unregistered, nonexempt securities in the form of promissory notes to three (3) individuals between 2003 and 2005 totaling at least $228,000. Edwards deposited some of the money from these investors into an account of his son, Jordan Edwards. Jordan Edwards signed blank checks that his father, Edwards, later used. After the sales in this matter Edwards pleaded guilty to a felony charge filed by the U.S. Attorney’s Office stemming from the previous investigations of Edwards by the Division. Edwards is currently awaiting sentencing on this matter.

Missouri Resident 1

10. In October 2003, Edwards asked an 82-year-old Missouri resident (“MR1”) to invest in a promissory note in the amount of twenty-two thousand dollars ($22,000). MR1 stated that Edwards came to MR1’s home in Jackson County asking for funds. Edwards gave MR1 a promissory note. The promissory note stated, in part:

“For Value received, the undersigned promise(s) to pay to the order of....

[MR1] (hereinafter ‘Holder’), in legal tender, the sum of $22,000. This Note commences on 10/21/03 (hereinafter ‘Commencement Date’), and all obligations set forth herein are measured from this date. This Note is payable in one payment of $27,000 due on 03/01/04.”

This note was dated October 2, 2003, and was signed by MR1 and Edwards.

11. In early 2005, MR1’s son contacted Edwards regarding repayment of the $27,000 owed on the above-mentioned note. Edwards told MR1’s son that Edwards had a plan as to how he was going to repay MR1 and that MR1 was in a “rock solid investment.” Edwards also stated that if it did not work out, Edwards would pay MR1 out of his own pocket. To date, MR1 has not received any payment on the promissory note.

Missouri Resident 2

12. In early July 2004, a Missouri resident (“MR2”) visited Edwards at Edwards’ office in Jackson County, Missouri. Edwards asked MR2 for fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) and told MR2 that Edwards needed the money as his business partnership was splitting up. Edwards told MR2 that Edwards would need the money in the form of a bank check made payable to Edwards’ son, Jordan Edwards.
13. On July 23, 2004, MR2 gave Edwards a check for fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) made payable to Jordan Edwards and received a promissory note from Edwards that stated, in part, as follows:

“For Value received, the undersigned promise(s) to pay to the order of [MR2] (Hereinafter ‘Holder’), in legal tender, the sum of $50,000.00. This Note commences on 07/30/04 (hereinafter ‘Commencement Date’), and all obligations set forth herein are measured from this date. This Note is payable in 1 payment of $57,000 (principal plus 10% interest). The payment shall be due on 01/30/06.”

“[MR2] gave me a check for $50,000 made payable to Jordan Edwards. I Dennis Edwards assume full responsibility to repay this amount plus interest.”
(Emphasis in original.)

The note was dated July 30, 2004 and was signed by MR2 and Edwards in Jackson County, Missouri.

14. In April 2005, Edwards telephoned MR2 and asked MR2 for fifty-six thousand dollars ($56,000). Edwards told MR2 that Edwards would give MR2 a promissory note that would pay 10% interest on this note. Edwards stated that this money was needed for Edwards’ partnership.
15. On April 23, 2005, MR2 met Edwards at a bank in Jackson County, Missouri and gave Edwards a check for fifty-six thousand dollars ($56,000) made payable to Jordan Edwards. MR2 received a promissory note that stated, in part, as follows:

“For Value received, the undersigned promise(s) to pay to the order of [MR2] (Hereinafter ‘Holder’), in legal tender, the sum of $56,000.00. This Note commences on 04/23/05 (hereinafter ‘Commencement Date’), and all obligations set forth herein are measured from this date. This Note is payable in 1 payment of $57,500 (principal plus 10% interest). The payment shall be due on 10/23/05.”

“[MR2] gave me a check for $50,000 [a line was drawn through the $50,000 and the number $56,000 was handwritten above and initialed by Edwards] made payable to Jordan Edwards. I Dennis Edwards assume full responsibility to repay this amount plus interest.”

The note was dated April 23, 2005 and signed by MR2 and Edwards.

16. Late in 2005 and up through January 26, 2006, MR2 telephoned Edwards when MR2 did not receive the promised returns on MR2’s notes. When Edwards returned MR2’s telephone calls, Edwards assured MR2 that all of the money was safe. MR2 told Edwards that MR2 needed MR2’s money for retirement. To date, MR2 has not received the return of MR2’s principal and has not received any interest payments.

Missouri Resident 3

17. In September 2004, Edwards, asked another Missouri resident (“MR3”) to invest with Edwards so that Edwards could sell Edwards’ business in FIW. Edwards told MR3, among other things, the following:
 - a. FIW operated in forty (40) states and Edwards owned seventy-five percent (75%) of FIW and Edwards’ partner in Tucson, Arizona owned twenty-five percent (25%). The company had nine (9) employees and had four hundred (400) contracted representatives;
 - b. FIW contracted with major insurance companies to recruit financial representatives;
 - c. FIW received a portion of the commissions on insurance products these representatives’ sold;
 - d. FIW was a web-based company and the representatives averaged four million dollars in sales;
 - e. FIW had over thirty (30) insurance carriers, however, FIW did most of the work with four of these carriers;
 - f. Edwards had several individuals lined up to put in several million dollars in FIW and they planned to expand into all financial fields;
 - g. Edwards stated that he would have to go into bankruptcy before MR3 would lose money;
 - h. Edwards planned to sell FIW in the next twenty-four (24) months; and
 - i. Edwards needed one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) to pursue the sale of the FIW business and would pay MR3 ten percent (10%) interest on the principal and would repay the principal and interest in six (6)

months on March 17, 2005;

18. On September 17, 2004, MR3 gave Edwards two (2) checks. The first check was made payable to Edwards in the amount of seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) and the second check was made payable to Jordan Edwards, in the amount of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000). Edwards told MR3 that Edwards was helping out his son who would be graduating from college in the near future and Edwards would include the entire $100,000 in MR3's promissory note from Edwards.
19. On September 17, 2004, Edwards and MR3 signed the promissory note dated September 17, 2004, that stated, in part, the following:
 - a. "For Value received, the undersigned promise(s) to pay to the order of.... [MR3] (hereinafter 'Holder'), in legal tender, the sum of $100,000.00. This Note commences on 09/17/04 (hereinafter 'Commencement Date'), and all obligations set forth herein are measured from this date. This Note is payable in 1 payment of $105,000 (principal plus 10% interest). The payment shall be due on 03/17/05."
 - b. "Borrower agrees to pay ½ of 1% of the gross proceeds of the sale of borrowers 'lead generation / appointments setting business' to the lender. Payment will be all due and payable two weeks form the closing of the sale," and
 - c. "Should the lender choose to extend the term of this note to coincide with the closing of the sale of the 'lead generation / appointment setting business' borrower will pay the lender 2% of the gross proceeds of the sale of the business."
20. Edwards did not repay MR3. MR3 has contacted Edwards on numerous occasions to ask for repayment of MR3's principal and interest. Edwards has told MR3 the money "is coming" but, to date, MR3 has not received MR3's principal or interest.

Additional Findings of Fact

21. In March 2006, the Division received information that indicated that Respondent Edwards had offered unregistered and nonexempt securities in the State of Missouri
22. A check of the records maintained by the Missouri Commissioner of Securities confirmed no registration, granted exemption or notice filing indicating status as a "federal covered security" for any of the securities offered by the Respondent in the State of Missouri.
23. On March 7, 2006, the Division sent a letter of inquiry to Respondent Edwards that requested a claim of exemption from registration or exception from definition upon which Respondent relied in offering unregistered securities or any claim that the securities were federal covered securities. The letter also requested additional information about the offers to Missouri residents and advised Respondent that failure to respond within a reasonable time as set by the Commissioner constituted proper grounds for the entry of an order suspending the right to offer and sell securities in the State of Missouri.

24. On March 9, 2006, an agent for Respondent signed for the letter from the Division. To date, the Division has not received a response from Respondent.
25. On July 19 and 20, 2006, Jordan Edwards told representatives of the Securities Division and the Department of Insurance the following:
 - a. He attended college from 2002 to May 2006, and worked in a clerical position for his father during the summers of 2003 and 2004;
 - b. He did not know anything about the insurance business and did not know about his father's business dealings;
 - c. He became licensed as an insurance agent in Missouri in September 2003 at the insistence of his father. Jordan understood that his father could obtain more insurance business through Alliance if Jordan was licensed;
 - d. He never attempted to sell any insurance products to any individual;
 - e. Edwards told Jordan to open two bank accounts in Jordan Edwards' name at Bank of America. One account, the Campus Edge Account ("Campus Account") at Bank of America was to be used by Jordan to pay his day to day expenses. The second account at Bank of America (referred to here as "Business Account") would be used by Edwards.
 - f. Edwards had Jordan Edwards sign entire books of blank checks so that Edwards could transfer money to and from Jordan's Business Account. Jordan was not aware of the transactions that took place within the Business Account and he did not review statements or transactions within the Business Account.
 - g. He does not know MR1, MR2 or MR3 and was not aware that any Missouri resident wrote checks to Jordan Edwards or that these checks were deposited into the Business Account; and
 - h. He stated that he would relinquish his Missouri insurance license.
26. In connection with the offer or sale of securities to these Missouri investors, Respondent Edwards omitted to state the following:
 - a. The securities offered and sold by Respondent were not registered in the State of Missouri;
 - b. Edwards was not registered to sell securities in Missouri;
 - c. Information about the background and history of Edwards;
 - d. The actual use of the investment proceeds;
 - e. That Edwards was the subject of a 1993 Cease and Desist Order from the State of Missouri for selling unregistered securities in the form of an evidence of indebtedness;
 - f. That Edwards was the subject of a 2003 Cease and Desist Order from the State

- of Missouri for selling unregistered securities in a debt collection partnership;
- g. That Edwards was the subject of a 2003 Cease and Desist Order from the State of Missouri for selling unregistered securities in customer-owned pay telephones;
 - h. That Edwards had sold investments in Trinity Financial Group, LLC that had resulted in over a million dollars of investor loss;
 - i. The names, addresses, and financial condition of the “several buyers” that were “lined up to pay several million dollars” to purchase FIW;
 - j. Any risks associated with the investment; and/or
 - k. That Edwards did not have a Missouri insurance license.
27. In connection with the offer and sale of securities to Missouri investors, Respondent made untrue statement of material fact, including, but not limited to the following: Edwards would have to go into bankruptcy before MR3 would lose money, when in fact this was not true.
28. This Order is in the public interest.
